

No doubt the object of the recent Kansas message, and of this proclamation, is to operate against Reader's admission to a seat in Congress. According to the Presidential dicta set forth in the proclamation, Reader is only the Representative of a Kansas mob, which if not dispersed by the proclamation shall be by "the local Militia, and the U. S. troops." This is the central idea of the message and the proclamation. The President would fix the lie most firmly in the minds of the people, and make it operate through them upon the vote of the House of Representatives, on Reader's admission. This is the purpose in addition to the present of intimidating the Free State men.

CONGRESS.

The people of Salem and its vicinity need no word of exhortation from us to induce them to improve this rare opportunity. Of course the Town Hall will be crowded as it should be.
